Fraud Friday #3: Mike Timoney, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston Webinar

10:00 AM - 11:00 AM CST

info@umacha.org

Series Description: Fraud, scams, and financial crimes continue to remain an ever-evolving battle as, despite the motive often staying the same, the tactics continue changing over time. During this series, you will gain insights about the types of scams faced by financial institutions and recommendations to help mitigate against the risk of becoming victim to these frauds.

This series is co-sponsored by UMACHA and the Financial & Retailers Protection Association (FRPA).

Session Description: Scams continue to increase year over year, targeting consumers who unknowingly place their trust in fraudsters, resulting in financial losses and emotional distress. The objective of this session is to provide an overview of how fraudsters typically target their victims, how having a consistent definition of scam reporting helps organizations better understand and mitigate the problem, how timely access to fraud information can aid in fraud management, and to educate consumers/industries on detecting scams early to prevent potential losses within an organization.

Speaker: Mike Timoney, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston

Lunch Table Talk (Six-Part Webinar Series)

Webinar

12:00 PM - 01:00 PM CST

info@umacha.org

Calling all UMACHA members: You are invited to our FREE members-only Lunch Table Talk series where we dive into what's trending in the world of payments. While our staff will help guide the conversation, this is your opportunity to bring your burning questions, thoughts, and curiosities to a large group of your peers. Together, we can all gain new insights and learn from fresh perspectives as we strive to stay up to date with all things payments!

Actual webinar run time is 50 minutes (12:00pm - 12:50pm CT).

Note: Due to the conversational nature of these sessions, they will not be recorded. Therefore, you are highly encourage to attend live. Additionally, accredited attendees may only claim CECs from this series if a session was attended.

ACH Receiving and RDFI Basics Workshop (In-Person - Minnesota)
TBD

09:00 AM - 03:00 PM CST

info@umacha.org

Whether you're a newcomer to ACH Operations, step in as backup during your coworkers' vacations, or simply interested in gaining a deeper understanding of ACH processing, this workshop will equip you with a thorough understanding of your role and responsibilities as a Receiving Depository Financial Institution (RDFI). During this full-day event, we've designed sessions that cover essential topics, including Notifications of Change, managing Returns and Extended Returns, handling Written Statements of Unauthorized Debit, and insights into the handling of Federal Government Payments, including the requirements set forth in the Green Book.

July 17, 2024

ACH Origination and ODFI Basics Workshop (In-Person - Minnesota)
TBD

09:00 AM - 03:00 PM CST

info@umacha.org

As an Originating Depository Financial Institution (ODFI), you shoulder a substantial number of warranties within the ACH Network. Are you well-versed in what these warranties entail and the liabilities that come with sending ACH Entries?

Join us as we discuss a wide range of important topics, including an overview of ACH Network participants, the fundamental rights and responsibilities of ODFIs, ACH origination agreement requirements, Third-Party Sender obligations, authorization requirements, Standard Entry Class Codes, effective risk management practices, and more. Whether you are new to ACH origination, serve as a backup, or you are just looking for a refresher, this workshop is for you.

info@umacha.org

As the APRP exam window draws near, it's the homestretch for your preparations. This two-day workshop is the perfect opportunity to fine-tune your knowledge and boost your confidence. Through a combination of engaging discussion and review activities, you'll solidify your understanding of various concepts likely to be within the scope of the APRP exam. But this workshop is more than just a recap – it's your opportunity to address any lingering questions and seek clarification on complex topics. We understand that the final stretch of preparation can be challenging, which is why we've designed this workshop to reenergize and refocus you when you need it most.

The APRP Workshop is a component of the larger APRP Exam Prep Series. Click here to learn more about and/or register for the APRP Exam Prep Series.

Already have your APRP? This workshop is a great opportunity to earn Continuing Education Credits to maintain your APRP.

Virtual Event

09:00 AM - 03:00 PM CST

info@umacha.org

Join UMACHA's Accredited Payments Risk Professionals (APRPs) as we delve into the intricacies of risk management, covering both primary and ancillary risk types. You'll gain insights into controls that financial institutions should consider to mitigate these risks effectively. We will review the FFIEC's perspective, as outlined in their IT Examination Handbook, and the regulatory landscape's impact on risk management practices. Whether you're involved in strategic planning, compliance, or day-to-day operations, everyone should walk away with something from this workshop.

Payment Exceptions Workshop (Virtual)

Virtual Event

09:00 AM - 03:00 PM CST

info@umacha.org

Payment exceptions, especially those related to resolving errors and reports of unauthorized activity, continues to be one of the most common themes of questions we receive at UMACHA. During this workshop, we will provide an overview of Reg E and consumer liability. We will focus on how a financial institution's obligations under Reg E must be handled in conjunction with obligations under the Nacha Operating Rules, including requirements if a consumer reports unauthorized ACH debits that are beyond the 60-calendar day return timeframe – and how a financial institution can attempt to recover the funds and avoid taking a loss. ACH isn't the only payment method included – we will include discussion about check, debit card, wire transfer, and even instant payment exceptions, too!

ACH Policy and Procedures Workshop (In-Person - North Dakota)

TBD

09:00 AM - 03:00 PM CST

info@umacha.org

The policies and procedures that your financial institution implements play a very important role in defining your guiding principles and forming the basic structure of your business operations. During this workshop, we will review several key provisions of the Nacha Operating Rules you will want to ensure are reflected within your organization's documented ACH procedures. By ensuring that your procedures are up to date and your policies are clear, you will have the confidence to know that your customers and members will have a consistent experience and your processes comply with the Rules.

October 2, 2024

ACH Audit Workshop (In-Person - Minnesota)

TBD

09:00 AM - 04:00 PM CST

info@umacha.org

Every financial institution participating in the ACH Network is required to conduct an annual ACH audit. Are you prepared to meet this requirement? This interactive workshop places a spotlight on the specific audit requirements for both RDFIs and ODFIs and provides valuable insights and best practices for conducting your own internal audit effectively. Our seasoned audit experts will share experience gained through numerous audits, offering valuable tips, and highlighting common areas of non-compliance. As a valuable bonus, you will receive the electronic version of UMACHA's ACH Audit Guide, providing you with the necessary tools and resources to complete your audit this year.

ACH Warranties and Indemnities

Webinar

10:00 AM - 11:00 AM CST

info@umacha.org

Regardless of whether you are an ODFI, RDFI, or both, you are making warranties and indemnities to other ACH Network participants every day. This session discusses what a warranty and indemnity are and why you should understand the warranties and indemnities you are making. The session takes a deep dive into the warranties and indemnities regarding ACH authorizations, Notifications of Change, and transactions where an Eligible Source Document (i.e. check) is converted to an ACH debit. Finally, the session wraps up with a discussion on what to do when you are unable to resolve a dispute with another financial institution regarding an asserted breach of warranty.

Rules vs. Reality (Three-Part Webinar Series)

Webinar

10:00 AM - 11:30 AM CST

info@umacha.org

Join us as we discuss real member experiences, which can often be more hair-raising than fiction. Our goal is to shed light on practical scenarios that financial institutions are regularly dealing with, providing a platform for a deeper understanding of how the Nacha Rules may be effectively applied in practice. Scenarios discussed may include topics such as Business Email Compromise, disputes and Reg E error resolution, and ACH authorization issues. We'll also foster an exchange of ideas (audience participation is encouraged), with discussions on how to make informed judgment calls as we weigh the Rules vs Reality.

ACH Policy and Procedures Workshop (Virtual)

Virtual Event

info@umacha.org

The policies and procedures that your financial institution implements play a very important role in defining your guiding principles and forming the basic structure of your business operations. During this workshop, we will review several key provisions of the Nacha Operating Rules you will want to ensure are reflected within your organization's documented ACH procedures. By ensuring that your procedures are up to date and your policies are clear, you will have the confidence to know that your customers and members will have a consistent experience and your processes comply with the Rules.
